WHAT TO BRING: 1 item to be appraised and 1 item to be juried or judged
LUNCH

DESCRIPTION:

Part 1: Morning-Learn the ins and outs of appraisals

- What an appraisal is and why it is important.
- The various purposes for appraisals and how these differ and affect the value.
- The various markets and how they affect the value.
- How appraisers conclude value.

Teacher will not be able to provide you with an appraisal on this day.

Part 2: Afternoon-Learn the ins and outs of Jurying and Judging Shows and Exhibits

- How the process affects the results of jurying and judging
 - What jurors and judges look for
 - Where to find venues for exhibiting
 - How to evaluate your own work and improve it as a result
- Together as a group you will work on judging a piece. Attendees will break into groups to judge other's work following set criteria. The groups will reconvene and discuss their findings.

DR. Cheryl Christian is a certified, USPAP qualified, personal property appraiser. She is also a certified master judge and is Director of Judges' Certification for the National Academy of Needlearts. For ten years, Christian has been Publisher and editor of Needle Arts Magazine.
